

Saturday 10 February 2018

Preston Candover Village Hall at 7.30pm

“I’m sorry I haven’t a Candover Clue!”

An evening to while away the winter blues. Meet your friends and neighbours over supper while being given silly things to do.

Based loosely, (very loosely) on the Radio 4 ‘antidote to panel games’ show... with something for everyone. Not just word games but (quite possibly) musical, technical and artistic challenges....

£10 per head to include delicious supper

Bring your own plates, bowls, glasses and cutlery and something to drink.

All proceeds to St Mary’s Church, Preston Candover.

Do come and bring your friends!

To book call Jane Laws 01256 389491 or email jane@rosslaws.co.uk. Please advise any particular dietary requirements.
